

BESPOKE WORKSHOP FACILITATOR AT YOUR NEXT EVENT

NEED A SPEAKER OR WORKSHOP FACILITATOR FOR YOUR NEXT EVENT?

Let's face it; when it comes to making your event, training session or retreat a success with real, measurable outcomes, it can all come down to your speaker or workshop facilitator. Their ability to deliver exceptional, practical, implement-it-now-and-get-results information, and deliver it in an engaging, energetic and entertaining way will ultimately determine how much your team absorbs and puts into action.

Conferences are ideal times for connecting, reflecting, growing and learning. Why not make it engaging and meaningful? The benefits of engaging in a bespoke workshop with quality facilitator includes:

- empowering leaders and individual employees
- creating a culture of continuous improvement and professional development
- having a bespoke quality workshop that addresses your needs or issues
- enhancing the quality and performance of teams and leaders
- giving leaders more control over results, by engaging them in the process
- giving all team members an experience to unleash their power in performance

GIVE YOUR COMPANY A WINNING TEAM MINDSET & SUCCESS STRATEGIES WITH A DISC WORKSHOP

Your team are the backbone of your organisation. They are at the frontline every day dealing with customers, setting your standard of quality and forming your reputation. They are your greatest assets.

One of the best ways to unleash the power of your team and uncover their hidden strengths, talents, passions, personality quirks and communication styles is through behavioural and personality profiling. Bec Fox is an accredited Extended DISC profiler and trainer.

Just imagine if you could communicate more effectively, delegate more clearly, understand the 'why' behind certain behaviours and have the ability to unlock your team's peak performance. This is what profiling can do within your organisation.

While there are many psychometric profiles and character strength tests Bec Fox has accredited with Extended DISC training and runs bespoke workshops. Based on human psychology, business success strategies and benchmarks for elevating leadership and business growth, Extended DISC have both been scientifically proven to enhance performance.

A workshop after doing the online DISC report has powerful outcomes. Bec prefers to run a 4 hour to 6 hour workshop to allow immersion into DISC energies.

Within a day's workshop she introduces fundamental human psychology strategies for mindset and behaviours that stem from individual profiles. She then provides a deeper understanding of the DISC energies. In understanding DISC more, your team will be able to identify their own energy, how they perform in peak state (their ultimate state), how they communicate, how they are perceived by others and how they perform under pressure. The workshop will provide human psychology strategies and guidance on how to work better within teams, build a positive and effective culture and understand individual energies to improve communication with peers and clients.

Embracing an 'at cause mindset' and enabling DISC energies to thrive at work can help us move forward positively with purpose and as a united team. Not to mention the impact on life, family and relationships outside the workplace.

If you engage in an online DISC, we can further cover how to understand individual reports. Bec can then "cluster" the team in a separate report (complimentary), highlighting how they spread across the spectrum. This is extremely valuable for communication, management, HR and recruitment.

Bec Fox facilitates with an engaging style. She allows time for individual profile understanding, reflection, team discussion and intertwine activities and scenarios that highlight how people work under pressure and at optimal performance. The team experiences their own profile strengths and stretches, plus those of others through specific activities.

Be prepared to get engaged. Work together. Unleash your Courage. Team work. Problem solve. Bring creativity. Imagination. Voice. Camaraderie. Cohesion. In essence, be prepared to learn, grow and engage even more with your team.

The outcomes of engaging with an experienced facilitator, coach and DISC Profiler who designs bespoke workshops and presentations are more influence on results in the areas of

- increased work and life satisfaction
- increased creativity and innovation
- team member self-awareness and improved SEI
- strategies for effective leadership, behaviour management, communication and attitudes
- increased company engagement
- alignment of team members to corporate vision, values and goals
- improved organisational flexibility
- ultimate improvement in team cohesion, focus and productivity leading to results across retention, goal success and profit margins

TESTIMONIALS

"Bec is a master at bringing a team together and encouraging individuals in the group to bring their best self.

Bec brought her inclusive, fun, easy going and warm nature to our session but all the whilst i was left with no doubt that not only was she 100% on point in her subject matter she artfully guided and nudged our group to our fullest potential. Thanks Bec"

May McGarva

Director Atticus Accountancy

"Bec through her workshops, amazing listen skills and her forthright advice has had a profound impact on our organisation.

In our initial interview it was clear to me that Bec was a great listener (she was taking notes) and was really trying to understand who we are, what we stand for and what problems we have. This is unique in the world of coaches and consultants.

When working with our team Bec was able to clearly identify and articulate where we needed work and help us map a way forward: incredible! I am so thankful to Bec for her insight, her honesty and flexibility in working with our team and our needs.

Bec Fox comes with my highest recommendation. Work with Exceeding Expectations and you'll be moving in the right direction.

After attending Bec's workshops and presentations I am injected with a renewed zest for life on many different levels. Bec is a leader and in her presentations gives solutions which inspire growth and change with clarity.

Bec is dynamic and has the ability to change lives that are ready for leadership and direction - no matter what background or age groups. She adapts the focus to suit the audience. Bec is dynamic, flexible and energetic.

To be in her presence is awesome because she shares personal stories with humour and powerful insights. Bec takes the audience on a journey of self-discovery and personal and professional success. She does this skilfully and with warmth.

Viv Capes

Coach and event assistant

"Through this training, my learnings were: understanding my own work style better, overcoming limitations of our team and increasing better communication, and what I can immediately start doing to improve my effectiveness with the team - under our newly agreed team values".

Imogene Yasmin

Nature Play

"Bec, has excellent interpersonal skills and is an expert in her field. Highly recommend her to your leadership team and student leadership teams.
